

KLove is a wonderful station for my family to listen to. My 5 and 7 year old children sing right along with the christian music. I would not like this interrupted because there are not any other christian broadcast stations to listen to in this area. Please do not substitute this station!!!!